

WILMINGTON UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF TECHNOLOGY
BASIC COURSE INFORMATION

COURSE TITLE: Medical Writing

COURSE NUMBER: COM 6680

I. MAJOR INSTRUCTIONAL GOALS:

GOAL A: Write and ensure consistency and quality of clinical reports and other health documentation

Learning Outcomes: The student will:

- A-1. Perform proofreading
- A-2. Apply professional techniques when creating medical reports
- A-3. Recognize the importance of privacy in medical documentation

GOAL B: Write scientific manuscripts, abstracts and adhere to selected medical journals

Learning Outcomes: The student will:

- B-1. Employ medical terminology
- B-2. Summarize medical data and results in a clear and concise manner

GOAL C: Prepare medical presentations using graphics and other technology

Learning Outcomes: The student will:

- C-1. Apply design fundamentals to medical presentations
- C-2. Create visuals from medical data and reports

II. CLASS PARTICIPATION:

Relevant observations are encouraged and enrich the experiential class.

Students are ethically obliged to avoid these and similar practices.