

35 Instructional Hours

5 Structured External Assignment Hours

This course will examine the implications of diversity, equity, inclusion, cultural humility, and unconscious bias for professional nursing practice. Strategies to address social determinants of health will be applied to reduce health disparities and inequities across the continuum of care.

1. Apply core principles of social justice and human rights in professional nursing practice.
(Domains

and oral/multimedia presentations. (Domain 10)

27.599cre W n BT20.g0.001 Tc -0.001 Tw 1

The assignment aims to obtain information on a health issue that exhibits inequities for some populations

	Social Determinants of Health Implicit Bias

Access to Care

weekend or holiday. Please refer to your course faculty's specific availability as noted within the course.

Online learning courses are offered in a seven-week format designed to move the motivated student through the curriculum at an accelerated pace. A significant amount of student learning is done via independent assignments and requires the use of the Internet and the Canvas course learning management system.

Resources for Online Students, including Technical Support, can be accessed at:
http://www.wilmu.edu/onlinelearning/dl_current.aspx

Wilmington University actively supports the rights of students with disabilities to have equal access to education and makes every reasonable effort to make accommodations. For more information, please contact the Office of Disability Services at (302) 739-3700.