

WILMINGTON UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF SOCIAL & BEHAVIORAL SCIENCES
BASIC COURSE INFORMATION

COURSE TITLE: Topics in Behavioral Sciences: Addictive Behavior
COURSE NUMBER: PSY 43

I. COURSE DESCRIPTION

The psychological and physical effects of addiction and addictive behaviors on individuals, families, and societies will be discussed. The origin and treatment of addiction will be examined from a biological and psychological perspective.

II. MAJOR INSTRUCTIONAL GOALS:

GOAL A:

The student will understand clinical concepts central to substance abuse and dependence problems.

