

L-2: Describe the principles underlying key trends in the American economic system

L-3: Identify the consequences of global markets and corporate power

L-4: Assess the consequences of globalization for the American worker

INSTRUCTIONAL GOAL M: Examine social problems related to population and immigration.

Learning Outcomes: The student will:

M-1: Explain current and projected demographic transitions and their relevance

M-2:

M-3: Explore the issue of illegal immigration and its consequences for the United States and for the immigrants

M-5: Consider the controversy and the policies associated with those who were brought to the United States illegally when they were children

INSTRUCTIONAL GOAL N: Examine social problems related to the environment.